YOUNG DIGITAL SOCIAL INNOVATORS

WELCOME

Welcome to the issue #3 of the YDSI Project newsletter.

YDSI is an EU Erasmus+ Project bringing together partners and experts from the United Kingdom, Finland, Romania, Ireland, Turkey and Denmark. YDSI Project aims to empower young people to become confident social innovators making the most of digital technology available to them by modernizing youth work curricula and practice so that digital social innovation (DSI) can be taught to a high standard across a wide range of youth-serving organizations.

YOUNG DIGITAL SOCIAL INNOVATORS PROJECT RECOURCES

"All you need to know" Guide to Digital Social Innovation for Young People is now complete and available online in English, Turkish, Romanian and Finnish. This is a comprehensive and user-friendly digital publication which makes a clear case for the relevance of DSI, how it relates to key competences, and how it can be taught effectively in non-formal education and you can download this document from our project website!

You can download the document HERE

Interactive Young Digital Social Innovators' Toolkit is also now complete and available online in English, Turkish, Romanian and Finnish and ready to be downloaded by you "all digital innovators! YDSI Toolkit provides practical guidance and tools for youth educators (and managers of organisations) wishing to incorporate Young Digital Social Innovation activities into their youth work strategies, with a particular focus on increasing their confidence in using digital tools and apps.
